Patent Medicines Are Assailed in Speech Made by Ohio Man.

LAUGHTER GOOD MEDICINE

Patent medicines in general ware un-mercifully decried by Prof. John U. Lloyd, of Cincinnati. Ohio, in a paper read yesterday afternoon before the National Eclectic Medical Association, in convention at the Shoreham, Prof. Lloyd said that the wonderful increase in such medicines was due to the failure of the physician to exercise the needed super-vision over the homes of his patients.

"Home treatment is a necessity," he said, "but it should be under the direction of the physician, not the almanac. Never before has the artful and incompe-

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

FOR MEN

Close 6 P. M

By Common Garden Sage-A Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using Sage for darken-ing the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at sevety-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grand-mothers kept their hair seft and glossy with a "Bage Tea," which also restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it. This objection has been overcome by the Wyeth Chemical Company of New York, who has placed on the market a superior preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching sculp, and thin, falling hair.

The beauty of the hair depends more on its rich, even shading than anything else. Don't have dry, bursh faded bair, when a simple, harmless remedy will bring back the c don't be tormented with dangruff, itching scalp and loose, falling bairs.
